

INSTITUTE OF SLAVIC STUDIES

(The Faculty of Languages, Literatures and Cultures, University of Wrocław)

is honored to invite the participants to the 2nd edition of the International Student & Post-Graduate Scientific Conference entitled:

FILM/TEXT

organized by the Students' Scientific Club KinoKultura

The event will take place on 10-11th of April 2025
at the Institute of Slavic Studies (Pocztowa 9, Wrocław)

The conference aims to encourage young researchers interested in literary studies, linguistics, cinematography and film studies to exchange views on the role of cinema in art and culture.

We would like to invite discussions on the following and related issues:

1. Symbolism in film. Intertextuality.
2. Film as a synthesis of arts.
3. Film as a medium.
4. Film criticism.
5. Film adaptations of literary works.
6. Linguistic aspects of language in film.
7. Analysis of film translation. Creation of subtitles.
8. Adaptation of films for people with disabilities (Audio description).
9. Imagology and films. Representations of the Other in movies.
10. The influence of film on culture. Films and mentality.
11. Film and other media in foreign language teaching.

Through the interrogation of the suggested themes as well as the ones listed below, the conference aims at bringing together students from different disciplines as well as working in two languages: Polish and English*

Deadline for abstract submission: March 24, 2025.

Participation in the Conference is free. The event will be both stationary and online.

Please send an abstract of 250 words maximum as a single Word document to:
